

Role title: Partner Engagement Officer

We're recruiting for a short-term project-based role to provide support to clubs and county associations during the Return to Play.

c.6-8 days a month until September 2021 (with the possibility of a further extension).

Having gleaned insight into the attitudes and barriers amongst players around returning to court, England Squash is producing a range of support and guidance for clubs and county associations to drive participation and a re-engagement of players.

We are looking for someone with excellent communication skills who can connect effectively with county associations and squash clubs, bringing the community together after one of the toughest years in the sport's history.

You will:

- Drive awareness of the Bounce Back support and campaign amongst clubs and county associations
- Engage with clubs on return to play initiatives and campaigns
- Support county associations in sharing information to clubs on return to play plans
- Support the delivery of Return to Play webinars for county associations and clubs
- Be the main point of contact for and maintain relationships with county associations
- Coordinate content for Club Connect and produce monthly county updates
- Support the creation of new content, such as 'how to' guides and case studies
- Gather and share feedback from clubs and county associations
- Provide support for other England Squash participation programmes and campaigns such as World Squash Day and Squash Girls Can Coach

You must:

- Understand the squash landscape and including county associations, clubs and the role of England Squash
- Be an excellent verbal and written communicator
- Be proactive
- Be an enthusiastic team player

For an informal chat about the role, please contact Jo Rowbottom at joanna.rowbottom@englandsquash.com.

To apply:

Submit your CV and a proposal of no more than 2 pages outlining how you would undertake this project to Jo Rowbottom joanna.rowbottom@englandsquash.com

Your proposal should include:

- Your understanding of the squash landscape
- Your understanding of the impact of the pandemic on squash
- The approach you would take to engage with and support county associations and clubs as we return to play
- How you would define success in the role
- How you would measure the impact you have in the role
- Your expected remuneration

Closing date:

17:00 on Thursday 22nd April 2021

Applicants may be invited to discuss their proposal with England Squash in the week commencing 26th April 2021.

England Squash is keen to address areas of underrepresentation in its workforce and particularly welcomes applications from women, people from ethnically diverse communities, disabled people and people from the LGBT+ community.
