

Squash 101 Champion role

A Squash 101 Champion will oversee the organising of Squash 101 and Squash Girls Can sessions for students and staff at the university by working closely alongside the university squash club, social sport programme and England Squash.

Key priorities

- Support local venues to organise Squash 101 and /or Squash Girls Can session(s).
- Deliver Squash 101 / Squash Girls Can sessions.
- Identify opportunities to train volunteers, coaches and leisure facility staff as Squash 101 leaders.
- Ensure those who deliver programmes use the England Squash app for monitoring.
- Be an advocate of the participation programmes.
- Support local activity during campaigns such as World Squash Day and Women's Squash Week.

What we're looking for

For this role you will be a Squash 101 leader or squash coach who:

- Is passionate about leading sessions aimed at new adult (16+) players.
- Has existing local connections within squash and is able to build relationships with organisations and individuals.
- Is committed to growing squash participation locally.
- Has success in engaging and motivating new adult (16+) players.
- Has excellent communication and organisational skills.
- Is enthusiastic and proactive and able to motivate others.

Support for the Squash 101 Champion

- Induction / Orientation Day – attendance at the orientation day is mandatory and will give you the chance to meet with other champions, and find out more about the role and support available.
- Squash 101 Champion kit.
- England Squash will provide all the materials needed to deliver the programmes as well as regular contact with England Squash staff.
- Opportunity to apply for funding for innovative projects and activities linked to the role.
- Mentoring and support. You'll be part of a community of Squash 101 Champions where you can share ideas, ask questions and learn from others.
- We will inform you about opportunities for CPD whether that's in coaching, refereeing, becoming a tutor or other opportunities.

To apply for this voluntary role please complete the short online application form by Friday 14th June 2019.
